REFERENCES

The air raid shelter of the former Luftgaukommando in Dresden-Strehlen, which is located on a street formerly called General-Wever-Strasse, houses a bomb-proof center for telecommunications. The communications are telephone, teletype and picture telegraphy lines. The lines go to Moscow via relay stations in Krakow, Dniepropetrovsk, and Stalino. The telecommunications center was completed in October 1953. It is for the exclusive use of Russian authorities.
